A Christmas Carol

It's Charles Dickens' well-loved story, in an adaptation by Barbara Field. Come and enjoy the classic story of Ebenezer Scrooge, and his journey through time and space with the spirits of Christmas Past, Present, and Future!

As fresh and relevant as when it was written in 1843, the play makes its timeless plea for generosity, humanity, and a fair society, while a cast of twenty people create the bustling and colourful London of Dickens' day.
